

POLLY EVANS'

PRIZE WINNERS

Most of the contestants for the puzzle of March 14 went down on 22 vertical: "Get away from," and put "ran" instead of "run" or "rid." If the definition had been "GOT away from" then "ran" would have been correct. This shows how careful you must be in order to have all the words right. Some of the solutions looked dirty and untidy; they weren't worth wasting postage stamps on because there was no hope of them winning a prize when there were many solutions that were beautifully clean and neat.

One little girl named Sarah says she has sent in six solutions, all of them correct but she has never won a prize. Why not? Because Sarah's work is not so neat as it ought to be. She should try harder.

Here are the correct answers:

C	A	R	M	A	R
P	S	A	L	E	M	C
E	M	T	E	X	T	O
T	A	R	T	L	E	D
T	E	D	S	O	N
B	C	D	B	T	S	R
A	H	S	E	T	E	I
D	F	A	N	E	S	D
D	O	T	N	O	T	