Nuisance demonstrations prohibited

3 No person shall engage in any nuisance demonstration within 100 metres of the site of a designated facility at any time.

Intimidation prohibited

4 No person shall engage in the intimidation of any person accessing or attempting to access a designated facility or the site of a designated facility.

Exemption

5 This By-law does not apply in respect of lawful activities related to or pursuant to a labour dispute or collective bargaining.

Enforcement authority

6 The designated employee and enforcement officers are authorized to administer and enforce this By-law and to remedy a contravention of this By-law, and for these purposes have the powers of a “designated employee” under the Charter.

Penalties

7(1) A person who contravenes a provision of this By-law commits an offence and is subject to the following minimum and maximum fines under The Provincial Offences Act, CCSM c. P160:

- (a) for a first offence, a fine of $500;
- (b) for a second offence, a fine of $1,000; and
- (c) for a third and subsequent offence, a fine of $5,000.

7(2) The escalating fines set out under subsection (1) are applicable to the person who committed the offence and it is irrelevant if a second, third or subsequent offence is committed in respect of a different designated facility than the designated facility in respect of which the first offence was committed.

Address for service

8(1) Any notice or other document required to be given or sent to a person pursuant to this By-law may be sent by registered mail to an address determined in accordance with the following:

- (a) where the person is the owner of real property, the address maintained by the tax collector for the purpose of issuing the tax notice for that property;
- (b) where the person is the occupant of property, the street address for that property;
- (c) in all other situations, the last known address for the person.

8(2) Despite subsection (1), where the City has record of an email address for the person, any notice or other document required to be sent pursuant to this By-law may be sent to that email address.

8(3) Where a notice or other document has been sent by way of email under subsection (2), the designated employee must request and retain a copy of a delivery receipt, and where a delivery receipt is not obtained, the order, decision or other document must be sent in accordance with subsection (1).

8(4) Where a notice or other document has been sent to a person by way of email, the person is deemed to have received the notice or other document on the date of the delivery receipt.

Appeals

9(1) Upon payment of the applicable fee, any appeal under this By-law authorized by the Charter may be made in accordance with the Charter to an appeal hearing body consisting of the following individuals or their delegates:

- (a) the City's Chief Administrative Officer, who shall serve as Chair;
- (b) the designated employee, who shall serve as Vice-Chair; and
- (c) one enforcement officer appointed by the Chair.

9(2) Subsections 51(10), 51(11) and 51(11.1) of Procedure By-law No. 50/2007 apply in respect of hearings conducted under this section and the appeal hearing body may adopt other rules of practice and procedure.

Administration fee for appeals

10(1) Subject to subsection (2) and (3), an administrative fee of $500.00 is hereby imposed for an appeal made under section 9.

10(2) An appeal may not be accepted by the City Clerk until the fee imposed under subsection (1) has been paid to the City Clerk.

10(3) The appeal body hearing the appeal may order that the administrative fee imposed under subsection (1) be refunded to the appellant if the appeal has been made in good faith and has some merit.
